- ✓ Alabaster workshop

6 days
from only
€ 284,-

Programme and inclusions

1 Arrival

2 Florence

Guided tour of the Tuscan capital: artisan shops and local cafes frame the architectural marvels of Piazza della Signoria and the Cathedral, blending history, art, and the unique charm that defines Florence.

- 1 x FD tour guide for the Florence excursion
- 1 x 3-hour guided walking tour of Florence

3 Pisa and Lucca

Guided tour of Lucca in the morning: a walk along its walls, the ancient cobblestone paths lined with medieval architecture, the Cathedral of San Martino and the Guinigi Tower, adorned with its signature oak trees. In the afternoon, tour of iconic Pisa with its Piazza dei Miracoli, the Cathedral, Baptistery and the Leaning Tower (exterior view only).

- 1 x FD tour guide for the Pisa and Lucca excursion

- 1 x shuttle service to Piazza dei Miracoli in Pisa

4 At leisure - optional Cinque Terre

The UNESCO-listed hamlets of Monterosso al Mare, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, and Riomaggiore – are collectively known as the Cinque Terre. The five fishing villages dot the coastline, tucked into the habitable terrain between swaths of lush vertical land and cobalt coves.

Each village is unique, and with a combination of trains and boats (depending on weather and sea conditions), visitors can see several in just one day – creating memories that will last a lifetime.

5 San Gimignano and Volterra

Morning guided tour of San Gimignano and its towers, architectural treasures and historic facades. Stop at Piazza della Cisterna for a gelato tasting – our tip: a scoop of their award-winning saffron flavour! Afternoon tour of Volterra, a former Etruscan settlement offering amazing views of Tuscany's sunsets. Stop at an alabaster workshop for a peak into this ancient craftsmanship.

- 1 x FD tour guide for the San Gimignano and Volterra excursion

3 Godfather-inspired tour

First stop of the tour in Savoca, which, together with Forza D'Agrò, provided the locations for some of the scenes of Francis Ford Coppola's epic movie, The Godfather. Chance to enjoy a typically refreshing Sicilian granita sorbet at the Vitelli Bar, featured in the film as the place where Corleone asked Apollonia's father for permission to meet his daughter. The bar is still operating today. Continue on to the village of Forza D'Agrò. The locals are justly proud of their long history, traditions and culture, which resolutely resist the demands of today's stressful modern way of life.

- 1 x FD tour guide for the Godfather-themed excursion
- 1 x granita tasting at the Vitelli bar

4 Transfer to Malta - hotel change

Transfer by coach to Pozzallo and board the ferry to Valletta. The crossing takes approx. 1hr 45 mins.

Boasting over 320 monuments in a 2-mile radius, the Baroque capital of Malta was named the European Capital of Culture in 2018. The town offers a great mixture of history and contemporary liveliness.

- 1 x 2-hour guided walking tour of La Valletta

6 Mdina, Mosta and transfer to Sicily

With its narrow, cobbled streets shrouded in an air of mystery, Mdina snatches its visitors away from the present and transports them back in time. Malta's former capital, Mdina has been renamed several times by its different rulers in the 4,000 years since it was founded. A large town in central Malta, Mosta is connected with several popular local legends. The town is surrounded by many historical places of interest, including the Victoria Lines fortifications, built by the British as a defence mechanism against land invasion from the North. Mosta boasts the third largest unsupported dome in the world. Transfer to La Valetta for the return ferry back to Sicily.

- 1 x FD tour guide for the Mdina and Mosta excursion
- 1 x ferry crossing La Valletta - Pozzallo for coach and passengers

7 Syracuse and Ortigia

Guided tour of Syracuse, once one of the most important cities of ancient Greece. Optional visit to the archaeological excavations with its beautiful Greek amphitheatre and the famous Ear of Dionysius. Afternoon stroll in Ortigia, site of the ruins of the earliest Greek constructions. Its most celebrated building is the Cathedral, which rises from the highest point of the peninsula.

- 1 x FD tour guide for the Syracuse and Ortigia excursion

1 Arrival

2 The Dalí universe – hotel change

Tour in the footsteps of Dalí: Visit to Girona and Figueres (his hometown). Girona, one of the most beautiful medieval cities in northern Catalonia with origins dating back to Roman times: tour of the Old Town and the Cathedral, built between the 11th and 18th centuries, with the long and wide staircase in front of the main portal, one of the landmarks of Girona.

On to Figueres, a city deeply connected to Salvador Dalí. The eccentric Catalan artist was born and also buried here. Visit to the Dalí Theatre-Museum, a work of art in the surrealist style of the artist, emerging from the ruins of the city theatre destroyed in the Spanish Civil War. His grave is located in the basement of the museum, part of the Dalí Triangle, which also includes his house in Port Lligat (Cadaqués) and the Castell de Púbol.

- 1 x 6-hour guided tour of the Dalí Universe (Girona and Figueres)
- 1 x entrance fee to the Dalí Museum

3 Catalonia roots

Tour in the heart of the most authentic Catalonia, taking a leap of 1000 years to explore some of the most characteristic and picturesque villages in this area. While the coast buzzes with activity, just a few kilometers further inland, time seems to stand still. Opportunity to taste some tapas independently.

- 1 x 6-hour guided tour of Catalunya's Medieval Towns (Vic, Besalú, Castellfollit de la Roca)

4 Barcelona and the Sagrada Família

Start of the tour in the centre of Barcelona, beginning at Plaza Catalunya and the famous La Rambla, the city's main promenade, followed by a visit to the Boqueria Market, showcasing typical Spanish products.
